

FIFTEEN (15) DAY NOTICE

Mail one copy of the 15 DAY NOTICE to the judgment debtor by CERTIFIED MAIL. Or you may send it out by CERTIFICATE OF MAILING, or by hand delivering a copy to the judgment debtor. Keep the second copy for your own records. If you mail it by certified mail and it comes back unclaimed, bring this 'returned CERTIFIED LETTER' intact to the clerk's office. If you mail it out CERTIFICATE OF MAILING, bring the receipt with you to the clerk's office.

Start counting the fifteen (15) days as of the date the defendant signs for the CERTIFIED LETTER, or if the CERTIFIED LETTER comes back unclaimed, count (15) days from the date of mailing. If you mail it CERTIFICATE OF MAILING, count (15) days from the date of mailing.

Do not mail the (15) fifteen day notice until you receive through the mail your copy of the judgment entry.

If you do not receive your money, or if you do not enter into an agreement with the judgment DEBTOR as to terms of payment, after (15) fifteen days you may go to the Clerk of Courts office to obtain garnishment forms and instructions. It is necessary that you know the place of employment of the JUDGMENT DEBTOR to proceed with the garnishment.

If the person is self employed, do not send a (15) day notice. You cannot garnish the person wages, but you may (if you know where he/she banks) attach his bank account. As soon as you receive your judgment entry from the court, you can come to the Clerk of Courts and IMMEDIATELY FILE a bank attachment.

You will receive 25% percent of the Debtor's bring home pay for however the Debtor pay periods may fall (weekly, bi-weekly or monthly).

The employer is allowed to garnish for 182 days if they have been served with two (2) or more garnishments on the employee. If the employer has been served with only your garnishment it will become continuous until judgment amount is paid.

The employer has five (5) days after receiving the wage garnishment to respond to the court by filing an answer. The employer must complete the Interim Report form and file it with the court within thirty (30) days of the withholding of funds from the judgment debtor's personal earnings.

The debtor has five (5) days to request a hearing. This hearing is for the garnishment only (not the merits of the case). After five days if we do not receive such a request from the debtor, we will disburse the money to you monthly.

including interest and court costs, on which a judgment was obtained against you or certified in the PORTAGE COUNTY MUNICIPAL COURT on _____, payment of which is hereby demanded. If you do not do one of the three things listed below within fifteen days of the date of the mailing of this notice or if its service by the court, we will go to court, unless we are otherwise precluded by law from doing so, and ask that your employer be ordered to withhold money from your earnings until the judgment is paid in full, or if applicable, is paid to a certain extent and to pay the withheld money to the court in satisfaction of your debt. This is called garnishment of personal earnings. It is to your advantage to avoid garnishment of personal earnings because the placing of the extra burden on your employer possibly could cause you to lose your job.

YOU CAN AVOID THE GARNISHMENT BY DOING ONE OF THESE THREE THINGS WITHIN THE FIFTEEN-DAY PERIOD:

- 1) Pay to us the amount due;
- 2) Complete the attached form entitled "Payment to Avoid Garnishment" and return it to us with the payment, if any, shown due on it; or
- 3) Apply to your local municipal or county court or, if you are not a resident of Ohio, to the municipal or county court in whose jurisdiction your place of employment is located, for the appointment of a trustee to receive the part of your earnings that is not exempt from garnishment, and notify us that you have applied for the appointment of a trustee. You will be required to list your creditors, the amounts of their claims, and the amounts due on their claims, and the amount you then will pay to your trustee each payday will be divided among them until the debts are paid off. This can be to your advantage because in the meantime none of those creditors can garnish your wages.

You also may contact a budget and debt counseling service described in division (D) of section 2716.03 of the Revised Code for the purpose of entering into an agreement for debt scheduling. There may not be enough time to set up an agreement for debt scheduling in order to avoid a garnishment of your wages based upon this demand for payment, but entering into an agreement for debt scheduling might protect you from future garnishments of your wages. Under an agreement for debt scheduling, you will have to regularly pay a portion of your income to the service until the debts subject to the agreement are paid off. This portion of your income will be paid by the service to your creditors who are owed debts subject to the agreement. This can be to your advantage because these creditors cannot garnish your wages while you make your payments to the service on time.

You are not required to file with the court the Interim/Final Report and Answer of Garnishee for any pay period of the debtor for which an amount from the debtor's personal disposable earnings was not withheld for that order. This garnishment order of personal earnings generally will remain in effect until one of the following occur: (1) the total probable amount due on the judgment is paid in full due to your withholding of the specified amount, calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage from the debtor's personal disposable earnings that commenced with the first full pay period that commenced after you received this order; (2) the creditor, or creditor's attorney, files with this court a written notice that the total probable amount due on the judgment has been satisfied, or the creditor, or creditor's attorney, files a written request to terminate this garnishment order and release you from the mandate of this garnishment order; (3) a municipal or county court appoints a trustee for the debtor and issues to you an order that stays this garnishment order of personal earnings; (4) a federal bankruptcy court issues to you an order that stays this garnishment order of personal earnings; (5) a municipal, county, or a common pleas court issues to you a garnishment order of personal earnings that relates to the debtor and a different creditor, and Ohio or federal law provides the other order with a higher priority than this order; (6) a municipal, county, or a common pleas court issues to you a garnishment order of personal earnings that relates to the debtor and a different creditor that does not have a higher priority than this order; (7) the creditor, or creditor's attorney, files with this court a written request to terminate and release the garnishment order, and as a result, the garnishment order will cease to remain in effect. Under any of the circumstances listed above, you are required to file with this court an Interim/Final Report & Answer of Garnishee in the form set forth in 2716.08 O.R.C. A copy of the Final Report and Answer of Garnishee is attached to this order. Under the circumstances listed in (5) & (6) above, you must cease processing this garnishment after the expiration of the full pay period within which the 182 day after you began processing it falls. Special stacking, priority of payment, and manner of payment rules apply when a garnishee receives multiple garnishment orders with respect to the same debtor. These rules are set forth in 2716.041 O.R.C. An employer guide to processing continuous garnishment orders is included with this garnishment order. You should become familiar with these rules.

JUDGMENT CREDITOR

CASE NO. _____
(MUST BE ON ALL REFERENCES)

JUDGMENT DEBTOR

THIS COMMUNICATION IS FROM A DEBT COLLECTOR

You are hereby notified that this court has issued an order in the above case in favor of the above named judgment creditor in this proceeding, directing that some of your personal earnings be used in satisfaction of your debt to the judgment creditor instead of being paid to you. This order was issued on the basis of the judgment creditor's judgment against you that was obtained in, or certified to this court in the above case number: _____ on the _____ day of _____, 20____.

Ohio law provides that you are entitled to keep a certain amount of your personal earnings free from the claims of creditors. Additionally, wages under a certain amount may never be used to satisfy the claims of creditors. The documents entitled Order and Notice of Garnishment and Answer of Employer that is enclosed with this notice shows how the amount proposed to be taken out of your personal earnings was calculated by your employer.

If you dispute the judgment creditor's right to garnish your personal earnings and believe that you are entitled to possession of the personal earnings because they are exempt, or if you feel that this order is improper for any reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the claim in the Request for Hearing card enclosed, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the Request for Hearing to this court at the above address, at the clerk of courts office, no later than the end of the 5th business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reason for disputing the judgment creditor's right to garnish your personal earnings in the space provided on the card; however, you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing. If you do not state your reasons, the court will not hold it against you, and you can state your reasons at the hearing. No objections to the judgment itself will be heard or considered at the hearing. The hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of your personal earnings, if any, and can be used in satisfaction of the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor. If you request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing no later than the end of the 5th business day after you receive this notice, it will be conducted no later than 12 days after your request is received by the court. The clerk will notify you of the date, time and place of the hearing. You may indicate on the card that you believe that the need for the hearing is an emergency and that it should be given priority by the court. If you do so, the court will schedule the hearing as soon as practicable after your request is received, and the clerk will send you notice of the date, time and place of the hearing. If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing no later than the end of the 5th business day after you receive this notice, some of your personal earnings will be paid to the judgment creditor! If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the clerk of courts office. If you want legal representation, you should contact your lawyer immediately. If you need the name of a lawyer, contact the local bar association or the legal aid office. The judges and clerks cannot give legal advice or act as your attorney.
