Rule 2 Special Accommodations and Circumstances

When translator services are needed to assist limited English or non-English speaking persons communicating with the Court, the attorney or party requesting a translator (“requesting party”) shall file a motion stating the language for which a translator is required. The motion shall be filed at least twenty (20) days prior to any scheduled hearing or no later than the Status Conference, whichever is earlier, subject to discretion of the Court. The requesting party shall provide the Court Administrator with a copy of the motion. The Court shall arrange for the translator to be present for the hearing and inform the parties of the name, address, and telephone number of the translator’s agency. The requesting party shall immediately notify the Court if the translator is no longer needed.

2.2 Interpreters

When interpreter services are needed to assist hearing-impaired persons communicating with the Court, the attorney or party requesting an interpreter

("requesting party") shall file a motion stating the service for which an interpreter is required. The Court shall consider the information provided in the motion and all other available evidence. If the Court denies a party's motion to participate in proceedings by being physically present, the Court may facilitate the party's participation via remote access which shall be arranged by the Court.

2.5 Servicemembers Civil Relief Act

The Court shall advise a self-represented litigant who is an active member of the military service ("servicemember") pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act of 1940 ("SCRA"), 50 USC 501, et seq., as amended, of the right to obtain counsel. The Court may appoint an attorney to advise the servicemember and assess and allocate the cost of the attorney as costs in the case.

The Mediator may terminate mediation if the Mediator thinks that a party does not have the capacity to mediate without fear of coercion and/or control.

Communications made during mediation are considered compromise negotiations, are not admissible as evidence, and are subject to the other rules and provisions of
